Ethical Standards

The HEI maintains ethical standards to be observed by faculty and students when they conduct research/thesis/dissertation involving human participants or using animal subjects. The HEI may adopt ethical standards developed by the appropriate government agencies, such as the Department of Science and Technology (DOST).

Furthermore, the HEI has its research ethics review mechanism or may partner with a recognized ethics board, provided that the cost of ethics review should not be charged to students.

Supporting Documents:

- BOR Resolution No. 54, s. 2021
    - Establishment of PSU Research Ethics Committee (PSUREC)
- Manual for the Operation of University Research, Extension and Knowledge Management