Faculty Researchers/Technology Generators

Rationale:

Partido State University (ParSU) conducts research and development studies in social sciences, business, science and technology, culture and arts, agriculture and fisheries to strengthen the manpower and resource capabilities of the university. At present, faculty researchers have already generated technologies in the field of automotive, foods, agriculture, and fisheries. Most of these technologies were already patented and registered at the Intellectual Property Office of the Philippines (IPOPhl) and therefore ready for public disclosure through exhibits, pitching, and other promotional activities. Some of the generated technologies of the faculty are already in the pathway towards commercialization, however, promotion and dissemination of these technologies are not yet taken into account due to the lack of knowledge of the faculty on the appropriate promotional strategies that will bring their technologies to commercialization level.

With the aforementioned status of ParSU in the technology promotion, the Intellectual Property Unit sees the needs for seminar and workshop on technology commercialization and promotion of faculty. This seminar and workshop will address the lacking avenues for technology promotion and commercialization of the products and technologies of the institution particularly in the agriculture, aquatic, and foods.

In line with the implementation of the Regional Agri-Aqua Innovation System Enhancement (RAISE) Program in Bicol with the project titled "Project 1F: Developing the Intellectual Property and Technology Business Management (IP-TBM) in Partido State University (ParSU) through RAISE", the ParSU Intellectual Property Unit will be conducting a technology commercialization and promotion mentorship and capacity building activity. The activity aims to enhance the technology commercialization and promotion activities of Partido State University. This workshop is designed to capacitate participants in preparing the necessary documents to increase their technologies commercialization potential, learning the rigors of establishing technology-based enterprises, and promoting technologies to target clients and beneficiaries.

Objectives:

The Technology Commercialization and Promotion Mentorship Series Workshop will equip the participants with the different commercialization and pre-commercialization strategies, protocols and policies. Specifically, this activity aims to:

1. Lay out the entrepreneurial and innovation mindset of the participants for research and development;
2. Raise commercialization awareness through university-wide information dissemination of commercialization protocols and policies;
3. Learn techniques and strategies on technology promotion;
4. Learn skills and insights on information, education and communication (IEC) materials development; and
5. Assist, stimulate, and elevate ParSU's research development with commercial potential;

Expected Output:

After the end of this activity, the participants specifically the faculty researchers or technology generators are expected to achieve the following:

1. Gained insights and knowledge on technology commercialization;
2. Learned techniques and strategies on technology promotion;
3. Developed IEC materials for their technology;
4. Prepared Business Model Canvas for their respective technology; and
5. Accomplished ICANVAS Tool.
