Memorandum of Understanding

Faculty of Forestry, Universitas Gadjah Mada, Indonesia and Partido State University - College of Environmental Science and Environmental Design, Philippines

According to the Agreement for Academic Cooperation between Faculty of Forestry, Universitas Gadjah Mada, Indonesia, and Partido State University - College of Environmental Science and Environmental Design, Philippines, the two universities hereby agree on the following articles to establish the Exchange Program.

I. STUDENT EXCHANGE

1. The aim of the exchange program is to afford students an opportunity to have experience of international collaboration and exchange, as well as to gain a better understanding of Philippines and Indonesia through education.

2. The term of study for exchange students participating in this program shall be one semester or one academic year but may be extended with the consent of both universities.

3. The number of students exchanged under this Agreement shall be no more than three students at each university. The total number of mutual exchange students will be about the same from each university during the term of five years.

4. The host university has the right to decide the acceptance of exchange students, by taking into account recommendations issued from the home university for exchange students based on their academic record.

5. The host university will waive the application fee, entrance fee, and tuition fee of the exchange students. Transportation, accommodation, food, and other personal costs will be the personal responsibilities of the students themselves. Students are required to carry adequate health insurance during the term of exchange and provide proof of such insurance to the host university.

6. The host university shall reserve or make available accommodation on campus for exchange students or assist them in locating suitable housing off campus if they so desire.

7. The exchange student is treated as either a research student or a specially registered student.

8. The exchange students will be subject to the student rules at the host university, while on exchange. Exchange students will be offered the same facilities as local students.

9. Exchange students will study subjects or conduct research that are pertinent to their field of study and are offered by the host university.

10. The acceptance of coursework (lectures, seminars, etc.) taken at the host university and the measure of achievement attained there must be commensurate with the prevailing testing and learning evaluation standards of the home university. Each university will receive a performance evaluation for each student at the host university.

II. FACULTY AND/OR RESEARCHER EXCHANGE

1. The two universities will actively seek to promote mutual faculty and/or researcher exchange for mutually agreed periods.

2. Faculty and/or researcher exchange may assume various forms, such as individual short-term and long-term visits of faculties, joint research, and development projects.

3. Both universities will seek external funding sources to facilitate these exchanges.

4. Encouragement of the academic faculty and/or researcher to co-author publications, joint research activities, and joint project possibilities is in subject to applicable copyright and/or other laws of each country, as well as rules and regulations of the perspective universities.

5. The host university will endeavor to, as much as possible, make available such facilities that will enable the faculty and/or researcher to obtain experience and training in its departments and institutes, including the use of its laboratories and libraries.

6. The two universities acknowledge that in the absence of an external funding agency, all expenses for travel, living and allied costs will be left to the discretion and the responsibility of the sending university.

III. JOINT RESEARCH ACTIVITIES AND PUBLICATIONS

Joint research activities can be arranged between faculty members and/or researchers affiliated with the two institutions in any forms where both parties agreed upon. Any joint research activities shall aim to result in academic publication(s) which benefit both institutions.

IV. EXCHANGE OF INFORMATION

Information will be actively exchanged, including information for students, information on research and study provided at the university, relevant information about faculty members and fields of research, and university publications

V. TERMS OF IMPLEMENTATION, RENEWAL, REVISION, CANCELLATION, AND NOTICES

1. Details of the implementation of any particular exchange resulting from this agreement shall be negotiated between the two universities.

2. This agreement becomes effective on the day it is signed and remains valid for five years.

3. This agreement will be renewed after five years upon the mutual consent of both universities. Each university may cancel the agreement by notifying the other university of its intent to do so at least six months in advance of its expiration. Projects in progress at the time of termination will remain unaffected.

4. Any amendment or modification to the present text shall be submitted for review to the competent authorities and shall not be binding unless reduced to writing and signed by both parties.
